Viñas Viejas is a tribute to the old tradition that still continues in the picturesque village of Paniza. Our old vines, of up to 100 years old, are planted in slate soils above 850m., which give richness and complexity. Intense aromas of red and black fruits with a toasted touch; vanilla, toffee and chocolate notes.

It is an ideal accompaniment to grilled meat, vegetables and appetizers. Serve between 60-66 degrees.

VINIFICATION

Maceration and fermentation in stainless steel tanks. Step through barrels for six months to develop the full potential of the variety.

Afterwards the wine will be bottled and will remain in the silence of our underground cellar.
